

FAMILY LAW SERVICES

Receiving expert financial advice prior to your divorce can often make a big difference to the settlement you are awarded. If your divorce involves significant assets don't agree to the terms until you've spoken to Longhurst.

Pensions on Divorce

Longhurst's main focus is to help you put in place suitable solutions prior to and following a Pension Sharing Order. This could involve one or all of the following:

- Help completing the Financial Settlement Report paperwork (Form E)*
- Pension/Income equalisation calculations
- Evaluation of the CETV (actuarial advice may be required)
- State Pensions / State Second Pension / SERPS
- Analysis of which pension to transfer
- Assessment as to where best to implement your share of the pension
- Pension education, including retirement options, using clear jargon-free language
